

Gibbel Kraybill & Hess LLP Presents:
“Duty of Religious Leaders to Report Suspected Child Abuse”

Wednesday, March 21, 2012
7:30 a.m.—9:30 a.m.

Eden Resort & Suites
222 Eden Road, Lancaster PA 17601

GKH invites pastors and other leaders responsible for children and youth ministries and congregational child protection policies to attend this complimentary seminar at the Eden Resort. The seminar, limited to the first 110 registrants, includes a light breakfast and will feature Gibbel Kraybill & Hess attorneys, as well as Lancaster County Children and Youth and law enforcement. Topics will include:

- What does the Child Protective Services Law say triggers a reporting duty?
- To whom must reports be made?
- What is the clergy confidentiality provision, and when might it apply to a church’s reporting duty?
- What happens after a report of suspected child abuse is made?

To register for the free seminar,
please respond to Justin Halat in one of the following ways:

Phone: 717-291-1700 - Email: jhalat@gkh.com

We look forward to seeing you!
Due to limited seating, please RSVP by March 14, 2012.
