LBA and LBAF Elect New Officers, Board Members; Welcome New Admittees

If you were stopped on the street and someone asked you to name the officers of the LBA or the LBA Foundation, could you do it? Probably not.

One of the things that makes the Lancaster Bar Association different from many other organizations of legal professionals is that folks in our bar serve for the benefit of the organization rather than for personal kudos. ... But they deserve to be recognized for the leadership they provide and for the role models they are for new members entering the profession.

On January 20, Dwight Yoder passed the (imaginary) gavel of the presidency to Bruce Wolstoncroft. Serving with Bruce are Patricia Dunlevy (president-elect), Joe Roda (vice president), Larry Hinnenkamp (treasurer) and Josh Parsons (secretary). Filling the remaining seats on the Board of Directors are delegates-at-large Laura Tallarico, George Barr, and Jeff Ouellet and committee chairs Mike Winters, Julie Cooper and Angela Sanders. Jim Thomas has a seat on the Board in his capacity as chair of the LBA foundation.

Don't hesitate to share your thoughts about the LBA with members of YOUR Board of Directors. We need your input to keep the LBA responsive to your needs as a member and the Lancaster legal community's need as professionals. If you have ideas of how we can serve you better, take the time to talk with a board member.

Three days after installing new officers and board members, the LBA had the pleasure of welcoming 19 new members to the association. Newly installed president Bruce Wolstoncroft presented the following members to President Judge Madenspacher: Lauralee Baker, Joseph Blowers, Kathryn Cerulli, Crystal Clark, Brandon Conrad, Patrick Deibler, Daniel Desmond, Erin Dragann, David Latanision, Adam Marles, Shannon McFarland, Tammy McGill-Hoyt, Mallory Pelland, Christopher Sarno, Nathan Saxton, Lindsay Schoeneberger, Carl Spataro, Allison Stouch and David Walker.

Be sure to introduce yourself when you cross paths with our new members and welcome them to our community. (HINT: Come to the LBA Bar Dinner in May and find a delightful environment to get to know our newest members...and perhaps some of our more senior members, as well.)

At the end of the month, the Lancaster Bar Association Foundation added newly elected board members and elected officers. Joining the Board are Mike Boomsma, Joanne Judge, Susan Metcalfe, and Bruce Wolstoncroft. Jim Thomas is serving this year as chair of the Board. Other officers are Terry Warco (vice-chair), Patti Spencer (treasurer), and Julie Vanasse (secretary). Completing the Board roster are Sarah Yocum Rider, Elaine Ugolnik, Jeff Mills, Larry Keating, Bernadette Hohenadel, and Hobie Crystle. Stay tuned for news of LBAF projects and programs.
