This program will discuss the various estate planning tools available for animal-loving pet owners. Come and learn what you can do now to ensure that your beloved pets are cared for and protected in the future.

Tracey has been a member of the Board of Directors for the Humane League of Lancaster County since 2005, and works with local animal welfare organizations on a variety of legal issues. Tracey further enjoys helping individuals with estate planning for their pets. Tracey and her husband share their home with two animal rescues – a little black dog named Daisy, and a cat named Buster.
